

2020-2021

5.3.2. Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities following duly established processes and norms (student council, student's representation on various bodies)

Response:

1. Class Representatives
2. Students Clubs

Student Council, acts as a link between students and administration, and engages the students in providing democratic governance and developing leadership skills.

There is a class representative of every section of every class, who is elected by the students. The second tier is that of students nominated as Secretary, Joint secretary and Assistant secretary of various subject societies, clubs and committees who are nominated by their respective society in-charges. Once the nominations are received, and the list of elected students is ready, a meeting of the HODs and in-charges of clubs, subject societies, and committees is convened by Dean Student Council, with Principal in the Chair. There is a criteria of set rules and regulations by which a fair selection of proposed candidate is done. Student Council is headed by two Students, one from PG and the other from UG section, joint represent from different streams.

Students of the college are also part of the IQAC general body. They participate in decision making and policy formation activities of the IQAC. The Students also have representation in other administrative committees such as Library Committee, Canteen Committee, Grievance Redressal Cell, and Anti-ragging Committee.

Vaagdevi Task Force, constituted in 2012 and Anti Ragging Committee selected representatives; class representatives, and disciplined volunteers and members also work in coordination with the Student Council and help in creating a decentralized and democratic setup. Volunteers maintain discipline, organize and carry out activities and projects in the true spirit for community welfare.

The members of the Student Council actively participate in all major events. The students actively engage in planning and execution of all the activities of all the societies under the guidance of respective Club faculty in-charges. The students organize Mantra Meets, Vaagvismayi (Programs).

They collect money in the form of Voluntary donation from the students to extend financial aid, clothes, groceries to the old age homes/disabled children.

In order to maintain our touch with our alumni the former students are invited to Participate on various occasions such as Alumni meet/Annual day.

The student council ensures the prevalence of a healthy, congenial, strife-free environment of love and fraternity without any distinction of caste, creed, and religion.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME(N.S.S)

The main objective of N.S.S is to serve the community while studying in an educational institution. N.S.S seeks to arouse the social consciousness of students and provide them with the opportunity to work with the people around the educational campuses creatively and constructively.

The motto of the N.S.S is 'not me but you'. This expresses the essence of democratic living and upholds the need to appreciate other man's point of view and show consideration for fellow human beings. It also underlines that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of the society as a whole.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES OF N.S.S:

- To achieve all round personality development of the student through community participation.
- To work with and among the people.
- To engage in creative and constructive social action and to inculcate the sense of dignity of labour.
- To enhance their knowledge of the community through interaction with reality of social life.
- To put their scholarship to practical use in mitigating the problem of the society.
- To gain skill in the exercise of democratic leadership.
- To bridge the gulf between the educated and uneducated masses.
- To promote the will to serve the weaker sections of the community.

Sri A. Rajin kumar , M.B.A. Assistant professor, Department of commerce and business management is the N.S.S program officer of the college.
