Bathukamma:

Bathukamma is a state festival of Telengana, which literally means 'amma live'. This is performed in honour of Goddess Gouri. This begins with Amavasya before Vijayadashami, which is also called chinnabathukamma. This is a festival of flowers which is being celebrated by arrangement of flowers beautifully in an appealing manner. Women decked up beautifully gather in open places, sing and move in a slow dance rhythm. There are special songs for the event. The culmination day is the Ashtami when after arranging the flowers in the morning and performing puja and naivedyam. In the evening women again gather near water beds, sing, dance and distribute naivedyam, turmeric and Kumkum. Then they immerse the flowers in the water. The entire festival is a feast to the eye. The flowers used have been found to have antimicrobial properties.

The Navaratri is celebrated with gaiety. Programs are chalked out, with religious prasangam, Bhajans, Literary competitions, Mehendi, Rangavalli, Cultural competitions. The students ensure that they participate as well as watch the events every day. The students have a gala time. The penultimate day is concluded with a prize distribution ceremony. On the last day the idol is moved after offering puja. Prasadam is distributed and a grand nimajanam procession starts from the college amidst drum beats, deepam & kolatam performing girls.

Bathukamma is a state festival of Telengana, which literally means 'amma live'. This is performed in honour of Goddess Gouri. This begins with Amavasya before Vijayadashami, which is also called chinnabathukamma. This is a festival of flowers which is being celebrated by arrangement of flowers beautifully in an appealing manner. Women decked up beautifully gather in open places, sing and move in a slow dance rhythm. There are special songs for the event. The culmination day is the Ashtami when after arranging the flowers in the morning and performing puja and naivedyam. In the evening women again gather near water beds, sing, dance and distribute naivedyam, turmeric and Kumkum. Then they immerse the flowers in the water. The entire festival is a feast to the eye. The flowers used have been found to have antimicrobial properties.

The Navaratri is celebrated with gaiety. Programs are chalked out, with religious prasangam, Bhajans, Literary competitions, Mehendi, Rangavalli, Cultural competitions. The students ensure that they participate as well as watch the events every day. The students have a gala time. Through out the Navaratri the departments take turns in sitting in the morning and evening puja and offering prasadam.

The penultimate day is concluded with a prize distribution ceremony. On the last day the idol is moved after offering puja. Prasadam is distributed and a grand nimajanam procession starts from the college amidst drum beats, deepam & kolatam performing girls.
