About Warangal

Warangal is the second largest city in Telangana after Hyderabad. It has been chosen for the HRIDAY-Heritage City Development and Augmentation Yojana Scheme by the Government of India.

Warangal was mostly under the reign of Kakatiyas who captured the kingdom from the Chalukyas and Rashtrakutas in the early 11th century. Warangal is located 145 Km northeast of the state capital of Hyderabad. It is the 2nd largest city of the state and a very important tourist place with an enchanting architectural work which attracts many people from different parts of the world.

The famous tourist places in Warangal are

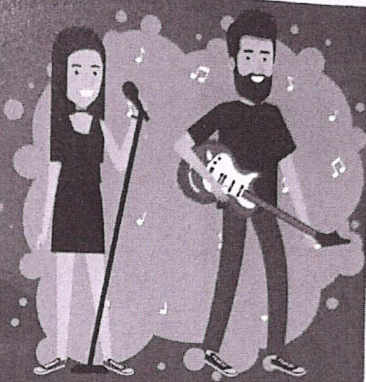

Thousand Pillars Temple, Bhadrakali Temple, Ramappa Temple and some monuments, which include Warangal fort and water bodies such as Ramappa lake, Pakhal lake, Laknavaram etc.

About Vaagdevi

Vaagdevi Degree & PG College, Hanamkonda (Sponsored by Viswambhara Educational Society) was established in 1993. It is affiliated to Kakatiya University, Warangal. The college is run under the judicious guidance and stewardship of eminent educationists to cater to the professional needs of students pursuing higher education. It offers reconstructed and job oriented courses. The completion of 27 years is indeed a major milestone in the progression of an educational institution.

Right from the inception of the college, our institution has earned considerable appreciation for providing value based education and for impacting the ideas of academic excellence, sense of discipline, high moral and ethical values leading to the development of integrated personalities. For these services very recently the college was awarded 'India Education Excellence Award' - Given by the The Berkshire Media - USA. The progress of an educational institution is assessed not only by the academic excellence but also upon the role it plays in instilling discipline, a sense of confidence, an attitude of co-operating with others and principled commitment.
